1. [redacted] George Murphy, Joint Committee on Atomic Energy staff, called to say he would be traveling to [redacted] and [redacted] and certain other places in Europe with personnel of the Atomic Energy Commission and Department of Defense, looking into the status of NATO security. Murphy said he had no intention of contacting us with regard to the purpose of their trip but might like to contact our people [redacted] as he has [redacted] done on one or two occasions before) for collateral assistance. I told Murphy we could send an appropriate [redacted] and asking that our people assist him in any way they could. A cable was subsequently sent.
